Marathon Talk And Training Gossip

The go-as-you-please to Haleiwa should come off on Sunday next. The roads are rapidly drying up, and will in a couple of days time be fit to run on. Most of the contestants are still in active training, and the extra week has helped them a lot to put on condition.

Jay Kuhns is not quite certain if he will start or not. The injury that he received some time ago at football is still telling on him, and he advises no one to plunge on his chance of winning. Fit and well, there would have been only about two men who would have been troubled by Kuhns, and it is indeed hard luck that he is feeling as he is at present.

Jackson is coming along nicely and stands a good chance of winning. P. J. Walsh, the veteran, was out over the course last Sunday, but a keeping results to himself. Several other Marathon men are doing long-distance try-outs, and some surprising records are being whistled around town. The distance to Haleiwa is close on to thirty miles—leaving on the alleged short cuts—and the man who cuts out the course in less than four hours should about win the cup.

Oahu College Inter Class Meet

Yesterday afternoon at Alexander Field the Juniors-Freshmen defeated the Sophomores-Seniors of the Oahu College. All the events were keenly contested and the final score showed that only five points separated the contestants, the Juniors-Freshmen being in the lead.

Great interest was shown in the interclass meet, and all the victors were cheered by their classmates. The field was in much better condition than on Saturday, and is rapidly drying up. The total points scored were Juniors-Freshmen 52, Sophomores-Seniors 47.

The results were: 100-yard dash: Sing Chong, Desha, Taylor. Mile: Young, Gibb. 220 hurdles: Desha, Rex Hitchcock, Randolph, Hitchcock. Quarter mile: Withington, Sing Chong, Taylor. 220-yard dash: Desha, Taylor, Randolph Hitchcock. Half mile: Young, Withington, Sabe. Relay won by the Senior-Sophomore team.

Field events: High jump: Kaulbaum, Rex Hitchcock, Randolph Hitchcock. Shot put: Kaulbaum, Lidge, Hammer throw: Lidge, Hitchcock. Broad jump: Desha, Kaulbaum, Randolph Hitchcock. Pole vault: Randolph Hitchcock, Rex Hitchcock.

PROGRAM

Secretaries or other authorized representatives of clubs are asked to send in a list of events, scheduled by them, that they may be included in the program. Address all communications to the Sporting Editor, Evening Bulletin.

Flora And The Cambrian Combine

H. M. S. Flora, from China waters, is now in the harbor, and consequently things look bright for sports. The Cambrian and Flora will be able to put up a good combined team of both cricketers and footballers. Neither ship alone could muster a full team of cricketers—that is, from amongst the wardroom members. Now that the Flora is in, that difficulty is removed, and the team the naval men will put in the field on Thursday afternoon will make the local players sit up and take notice.

The Britishers have all played the game at different times of life, and all can be relied upon to show some flashes of good form. Of course, they have had very little chance of practice for a long time, but still a man hardly ever forgets how to hit a loose-pitched ball. It is the real good length ones that bother the man out of form. It is more likely that most of the Britishers will be caught in the field than that they will be bowled.

It is going to be a corking good match and there will be some fine exhibitions of free batting before the stumps are drawn at 6 o'clock. Possibly a couple of players from Maui will come down on the Claudine in time for the match. It is to be hoped so, as that would lend additional attraction to the game.

Cambrian Play Allilolani Soccer

On Thursday the Allilolani College boys will probably play the Cambrian team at soccer. The College boys are rather small to tackle a bunch like the sailors, but they know a good deal about the game and may be depended on to show some good work. The only difficulty about the match is that a ground is hard to get. The Makiki site will be occupied by the cricketers and is consequently unavailable. However, the game may be played on either the old Punahou ground or the Alexander field.

The sailors are in no kind of condition and will probably become winded very quickly. Life on shipboard in the tropics is not conducive to staying powers, and the blue-jackets will know they have been exercising before the match is through. It is to be hoped that the rain is all past; the sun is shining at last, and may it continue to do so until the naval men have had a chance of seeing Honolulu under ordinary conditions. The weather has been awful for the past couple of weeks, and has prohibited all outdoor sports.

Swimming And Rowing For Mornings

Edwin Fernandez and a few others of the Healani Boat Club are trying to interest the all-night workers of the community in an early-morning rowing and swimming enterprise. The idea seems very feasible and is likely to be carried out. Many men who cannot get away in the afternoons will probably join in the movement, and turn out first thing in the mornings for a row. In the past, there being no certainty of finding a mate to go rowing with, has rather stopped men from turning out. As soon as a rowing man can be sure of finding a few of his kind down at one of the clubs in the morning, a rush will no doubt set in for the early-morning row and dip.

"Tis a fine sport—rowing—and combined with a dip afterwards, soon gets a man into good fettle. A meeting was held last night and quite a few of the enthusiasts rolled out. It was decided to get all the night-workers possible to take an interest in the scheme, and to start the "Morning Dip Association" right away. The M. D. A's. will do a lot of good in this city, and it is a splendid idea.

All Schools Have Track Meet Saturday

Next Saturday the All Schools field and track meet will take place on Alexander Field. Oahu College, the High School, and Kamehameha School will take part. These interscholastic competitions are most interesting as a rule and are generally watched closely by the older athletic men of the community. It is to the schools that we look for our future prominent baseballers, footballers, runners, high jumpers, etc. If the young crop of athletes of any particular year is not promising, the effects are noticed in some succeeding year. If no star performer flashes across the school firmament at any given season the fact is self-evident in the mediocre aspirants for athletic honors later on.

There is an old saying that Waterloo was won the playing fields of Eton. And very true it is, too, and also about any other important "fight or frolie" affair of life. The schoolboy of today is the man of tomorrow, and unless the standard of athletics is kept up in the schools, a general falling-off is inevitable in the future.

There is not much danger of a slump in athletics in these islands as long as such keen interest is shown in all school sports. The triangular meet to be pulled off on Saturday will—now that the rain has cleared off—be productive of some fine attempts for records. The High School, in their interclass meet last week put up some fine work, and feel very confident of being able to pull off the championship. On the other hand, the Oahu and Kamehameha are determined to leave no stone unturned in their efforts to be proclaimed the winners.

Taking it altogether, the schools have a fine bunch of athletes just now, and the All-Schools meet promises a good afternoon's sport. Alexander Field is not fenced, and consequently it is hard to collect any charge for admission; still a general fee of 25 cents will be charged the public and ten cents will be charged for students who attend any of the competing schools. Only judges and other officials will be allowed on the center field, as spectators nearly always get in the way of some runner and interfere with his chances of winning.

Old Weston On The War Path Again

The old-time ped, Edward P. Weston, who last year performed his long-distance stunt, is, according to a cable, going to try for one better. A mere stroll of 4300 miles is the veteran's new venture—no less than a gentle amble from New York to San Francisco, and the old gentleman, who has seen seventy-one summers, is not content with walking as direct as possible, but must add to the length of the trip by paying visits to towns and cities off his course.

When the majority of men reach the age of 71, forty-three feet is about their limit in the walking line and most of them content themselves with a jaunt from their bedrooms to the sunny side of the lanai. Seventy-one! ye gods! Why, most of us won't get within fifteen years of that and, with luck, should be competing in the "All-Corners" Asbestos Wings Stakes—that is, at least the newspaper section.

This Weston is a wonderful old athlete, and has our local vet peds beaten to a frazzle. It is understood that Weston does the long-distance stunts on behalf of the Hearst newspaper crowd. There is hope for us all yet, although the idea of starting a 4300-mile trip on foot at 71 years of age is not very consoling. Still it would be better than being carried out feet first to the undertaker's parlors. It would not be surprising to hear of some aged swimmer tackling the trip from Honolulu to New Zealand, using the famous crawl stroke. He might rest on the equator awhile before crossing it.

"A GAIETY GIRL" BIG SUCCESS

Last night, the famous musical comedy success, "A Gaiety Girl" was presented in Honolulu for the first time to a crowded house. This opera is certainly one of the best in the repertoire of the talented youngsters; it is full of catchy songs, pretty dances and comedy situations—and the Lilliputians are always seen to the best advantage in a play of this nature. They were great last night—just great.

The costumes of this play are particularly good, and some of them were "killing." The Heintz Kids were as much in evidence as ever to the huge delight of the audience. These boys are just coming into their own; they have improved greatly since their last visit, and are now at their best. Some of the song hits are: "High Class Chaperone" by Ivy Pollard; "In the Golden Sun" by Irene Finlay; "Please Go 'Way and Let Me Sleep" by Johnnie Heintz; "Lady From Madrid" by Ada Hind; and "What Will the Neighbors Say?" by Teddie McNamara.

After the final curtain, Mr. W. D. Adams announced from the stage the result of the Bulletin contest, which was received with applause.
